

NAACP YOUTH & COLLEGE DIVISION'S 2009 JUANITA JACKSON MITCHELL AWARDS

The NAACP Youth & College Division's "Juanita Jackson Mitchell Awards" are given to Youth Units, Advisors and State Youth & College Divisions who have displayed exemplary dedication and commitment to the mission and vision of the NAACP. The mission of the NAACP JJMA Awards competition is to recognize and reward exemplary youth activism in the civil rights arena. Each applicant is asked to demonstrate their level of activity, accomplishments and honors received, in the following award areas: Issue Awards, Best Of Awards, Advisor Awards, Gloster B. Current and Medgar Evers Awards.

Selection of the most substantive and creative entry in each category is effected by a scoring process in which a panel of judges from the National Youth Work Committee evaluate all dimensions of every entry.

"ISSUE" and "BEST OF" AWARDS

Youth Units and State Youth & College Divisions may apply in one or more Issue Award categories. In each category, a first place honor is recognition of the highest level of excellence and is judged to be superior to all other entries in that category. Entries that are also considered outstanding and worthy of recognition will receive an honorable mention. For judging purposes, each Issue Award category has a maximum point value of 100. Youth Units and State Youth & College Divisions that enter the Issue Award category will also be eligible to receive a "Best Of" Award. These awards are determined by the cumulative points derived from the Issue Awards. [Note: A unit does not have to apply for numerous Issue Award categories in order to win a "Best Of" Award; however, it will increase that unit's chances of winning a "Best Of" Award].

"Best Of" Awards Judging Example:

Unit	Entered Category(s)	Score
Robinson Youth Council	Education	40
	Health	45
	Total	85
Howard Youth Council	Education	95
	Total	95

 The Howard Youth Council would win the "Best Youth Council" Award because they received 95 points compared to the Robinson Youth Council which only received 85 points.*

Juanita E. Jackson to Join N.A.A.C.P. National Staff

Miss Juanita Elizabeth Jackson, of Baltimore, Maryland, will join the national office staff of the National Association of the Advancement of Colored People, September 15 [1935]. Her duties will include field work, especially among the youth division and junior branches and with church groups, both young people and adults. Miss Jackson, despite her youth, has been active in national movements among young people for the past five years. She was born in Hot Springs, Ark., but grew up and was educated in the public schools of Baltimore. She was graduated from the Frederick Douglass high school there in 1927. She attended Morgan College, but received her B.S. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1931. She taught in the Baltimore schools and returned to the University of Pennsylvania last year and secured her M.A. degree in sociology in June, 1935.

For three summers she traveled extensively through the South, Middle West and Far West for the Methodist Episcopal Church. She is vice president of the National Council of Youth of the M.E. Church, an organization composed of 18,000 Methodist youth groups. Perhaps Miss Jackson is best known as the founder and president of the City-Wide Young People's Forum of Baltimore, which holds meetings throughout the winter, regularly attracting audiences of 1,500 to 2,000 persons. Miss Jackson is a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, of the American Sociological society, the women's auxiliary of the Baltimore Urban League, and the executive committee of the Baltimore N.A.A.C.P. She was secretary of the interracial commission at the University of Pennsylvania and a member there of the Y.W.C.A. cabinet. In July of this year she was a scholarship student at the Institute of Race Relations at Swarthmore College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keiffer A. Jackson.

MEDGAR WILEY EVERS YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Medgar Wiley Evers, the first NAACP Field Director for the State of Mississippi, was dedicated to the fight for freedom and equality in his native state. Mr. Evers' steadfast determination for the Youth in the NAACP to take over its future management endeared him to young and old freedom fighters everywhere. On June 12, 1963, Medgar Evers was killed by an assassin's bullet in the driveway of his home. Thirty years later, February 6, 1994, Byron De La Beckwith, was convicted and sentenced to life in prison for this brutal murder.

YOUTH
LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Medgar Wiley Evers' memory serves as a lasting impression to youth that have accepted the challenge and are leading other young people to overcome the consequences of institutional racism. In recognition of Medgar Evers, the 48th NAACP Spingarn Medalist, the National Youth Works Committee of the NAACP has established the Medgar Wiley Evers Youth Leadership Awards. A subcommittee of the National Youth Works Committee will select three winners, one from each of the following age categories:

Category I: Ages 6-12

Category II: Ages 13-17

Category III: Ages 18-25

The candidates must show, through an original essay, short story, or poem, the contributions made by Mr. Evers. Each winner will be awarded a plaque and a $500 savings bond. To qualify, candidates must be no more than 25 years of age and active with a NAACP Youth Council or College Chapter that is in compliance with the National Office. Compliance is defined as: 1) Unit is in contact with the National Office, 2) Unit has a minimum of 25 youth memberships, 3) Unit's Annual Year End Financial Report has been received by the National Office, 4) Unit assessments have been paid.

Each candidate must complete the attached application and mail/email it along with their original essay, short story, or poem to:
